

Executive MBA 2012

Programs in German and in English

Enrolment: May 2012

IPFM is a business school established in 1998 predominantly by Czech subsidiaries of several multinational corporations. Since then, other national and multinational companies joined the group of our corporate partners.

Our mission is to provide qualified professionals and executives with the latest scientific knowledge and analytical skills to help them to cope successfully in an increasingly changing environment. For this, IPFM offers employed students in demanding positions a cutting-edge career-integrated MBA program that promotes progressive thinking along with modern management concepts and effective methods – all designed in cooperation with its partners from scientific and industrial communities. The program allows students to continue working full-time while studying.

Structure of the MBA program

- The part-time MBA program consists of twelve teaching modules which are divided into three-day periods of classes. Classes are held on Friday, Saturday and Sunday approximately once a month.
- The regular program requires 18 months of part-time study with a possibility to extend it to 24 months.
- Students have the opportunity to take classes online.
- The various modules are completed by written examinations. The Master Thesis is the integral part of the IPFM MBA, composed toward the end of the program.
- Internationality – students from different countries.
